

Disclosure of Services

Our spa services are intended for entertainment purposes only and are not performed by licensed technicians. We do not use harsh equipment or sharp instruments, and we do not provide services that require the use of chemicals. As professional event planners, we are committed to providing a clean and professional "spa-like" environment for all our guests.

Product Safety and Allergies

We use products considered safe for children; however, we cannot guarantee that allergic reactions will not occur. Princess And Diva Spa is not responsible for any allergic reactions resulting from our spa services, or from food and beverages consumed during or after our services, packages, parties, or events.

Responsibility of Guardians

Parents or guardians are responsible for notifying the staff at Princess and Diva Spa Fun Shop of any known food or skin allergies, as well as any other relevant restrictions.
